

MEDIA RELEASE

3 June 2026

COUNCIL WORKING TO RESTORE TV SERVICES AFTER SEVERE WEATHER

Norfolk Island Regional Council (Council) is advising the community that a television tower located on Mt Pitt was damaged and has fallen during the severe weather over the weekend.

Council is currently working on a solution to restore television services as soon as possible.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused and thank the community for their patience while these works are being carried out. Council will update the community when more information is known.

ENDS