RETAIL PRICE INDEX (RPI)
DECEMBER 2025 QUARTER REPORT

The latest quarterly Retail Price Index (RPI) report for Norfolk Island has been released, based on price data on Norfolk Island for the months of October to December 2025.

For the December 2025 quarter (Q4 for the 2025 calendar year) on Norfolk Island, quarterly inflation was 2.78% compared with 1.92% in the September quarter (Q3 2025) and 2.32% in the June quarter (Q2 2025). Airfares and insurance price rises were key drivers in the inflation increase.

Annualised inflation is 12.05%, compared with 9.99% in the September quarter (Q3 2025) and 8.09% in the June quarter (Q2 2025).

The latest inflation results are shown in the updated inflation data dashboard maintained on the Norfolk Island Regional Council website at www.nirc.gov.au/Economic-development/RPI (select Norfolk Island Inflation Data Dashboard – Accelerator). The results can also be read in the PDF document on the same link.
